Teacher Preparation – Elementary Education

Concordia University

Updated 11/14/2007

General Program Information

Degree: Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies. There is also a minor in Early Childhood Education available for those who wish to work in pre-kindergarten care and education.

Concordia also offers a graduate program which combines a Master of Education degree with a teaching credential program.

The Liberal Studies major is the Elementary Subject Matter Preparation Program approved by the state of California for students preparing to be elementary or multiple subject teachers. The coursework is aligned with California Content Specifications and is the best preparation for the CSET (California Subject Examination for Teachers) that all students pursuing an elementary teaching credential must pass.

Major

Students are encouraged to complete the Liberal Studies major to ensure the completion of all course requirements for the Multiple Subject Teaching Credential. All classes in the major must be passed with a grade of "C" or better.

Advisement Tips

- Preparation coursework for the Liberal Studies Major is listed on the reverse side of this sheet. The information on the back of this sheet should be used in consultation with a Santiago Canyon College counselor and the SCC Pathways to Teaching Program.
 - SCC Counseling office: Room D-106. Phone: (714) 628-4800
 - SCC Pathways to Teaching: Room D-104N. Phone: (714) 628-4797
- Completion of the California Basic Educational Skills Test (CBEST) prior to transfer is recommended.
- A minimum cumulative GPA of 2.3 is required for admission to the university, and a GPA of 2.7 is required for admission to the teaching credential program.
- Concordia University accepts CSU GE or IGETC GE plans, and students may transfer upon completion of 24 or more semester units. Admission also requires one letter of recommendation.
- Foreign Language Requirement: 2 years of high school coursework, or one year of college coursework, in a single language.

DISCLAIMER: All course and credentialing requirements are subject to changes as designated by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC). Please consult a counselor and/or university representative each year to ensure that material has not been changed from what is indicated on this announcement.
