Resolution F2015.8: Support of Splitting the Department of Social Sciences

Moved: Professor Howell

Seconded: Professor Bailey

Whereas, The Department of Social Sciences brought together four distinct academic disciplines: History, Political Science, Geography, and Economics so that no department would consist of a single faculty member;

Whereas, These disciplines have flourished due to expansion into new classroom, lab, and research facilities and with the support of all faculty and administrators; and

Whereas, The Department Social Sciences met in spring of 2015 and agreed to split the department into three separate departments;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate of Santiago Canyon College supports separating the Department of Social Sciences into the following three departments to be effective immediately:

- Department of History
- Department of Political Science
- Department of Economics and Geography; and

Resolved, That the Academic Senate of Santiago Canyon College authorize the Academic Senate President, or her designees, to take the necessary actions to complete the reformation of these new departments.

Date Presented: 17 November 2015

Date Approved:

Santiago Canyon College is an innovative learning community dedicated to intellectual and personal growth. Our purpose is to foster student success and to help students achieve these core outcomes: to learn, to act, to communicate and to think critically. We are committed to maintaining standards of excellence and providing accessible, transferable, and engaging education to a diverse community. (Approved 9/10/13)
