Resolution S2016.14

Support for the Formation of the Department of Sociology, Women's Studies, and Ethnic & Chicano Studies

Moved: Professor Umali Kopp

Seconded: Professor Cannon

Whereas, The Department of Social Sciences (Anthropology, Psychology, and Sociology) voted to split effective fall 2015, and the Department of Philosophy (Philosophy, Women's Studies, and Ethnic & Chicano Studies) voted to split effective spring 2016;

Whereas, In spring 2016, Santiago Canyon College has hired a new full-time Women's Studies professor and a new full-time Sociology professor, who will also teach Ethnic & Chicano Studies in fall 2016; and

Whereas, Sociology, Women's Studies, and Ethnic & Chicano Studies are pedagogically related through topics discussed, theories covered, social structures approached, and curriculum developed;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate of Santiago Canyon College support the creation of the Department of Sociology, Women's Studies, and Ethnic & Chicano Studies effective fall 2016; and

Resolved, That the Academic Senate of Santiago Canyon College authorize the Senate President, or her designees, to take the necessary actions to complete the formation of this new department.

Date Presented: 3 May 2016

Date Approved: 3 May 2016

Santiago Canyon College is an innovative learning community dedicated to intellectual and personal growth. Our purpose is to foster student success and to help students achieve these core outcomes: to learn, to act, to communicate and to think critically. We are committed to maintaining standards of excellence and providing accessible, transferable, and engaging education to a diverse community. (Approved 9/10/13)
