Moved: Senator Castellanos

Seconded: Senator Gates

Whereas, The processes for program review are an academic and professional matter requiring mutual agreement between the Academic Senate and administration for any proposed revisions;

Whereas, The previous program review cycle was delayed due to the implementation of eLumen;

Whereas, Program review is currently scheduled to take place in Fall 2021, only two years after the previous program review cycle and prior to the accumulation of sufficient outcomes assessment data in eLumen; and

Whereas, The Educational Master Plan revisions align with the program review cycles to allow program review to inform institutional planning;

Resolved, The Academic Senate of Santiago Canyon College support shifting the next program review from Fall 2021 to Spring 2023; and

Resolved, The Academic Senate of Santiago Canyon College support shifting from a three-year cycle for program review to having program review completed every four years; and
