Resolution F2021.04

Creation of Collegial Governance Task Force

Moved: Senator Gates

Seconded: Senator Castellanos

Whereas, The collegial governance structure has been established to facilitate the work of the college and ensure that all constituencies have the ability to participate in the college decision making process;

Whereas, Collegial governance committees review their membership, mission, and responsibilities each year but an in depth examination of the governance structure was last done when preparing for the construction of the 2014 Institutional Self Evaluation Report; and

Whereas, An effective governance structure is vital to ensure the college is able to make timely decisions that all of us to best serve the needs of students;

Resolved, The Academic Senate of Santiago Canyon College endorse the creation of a joint collegial governance task force that will include faculty, administrators, classified professionals, and students and will be co-chaired by the Academic Senate Vice President and an administrator selected by President Ralston; and

Resolved, The Academic Senate of Santiago Canyon College request that the task force submit its recommendations about the governance structure to the Academic Senate by May 10, 2022.

Date Presented: 21 September 2021

Date Passed: 05 October 2021
