Resolution S2012.4

Resolution in Support of Library Collections

Moved: Barbara Sproat
Seconded: Craig Nance

Whereas the mission of the Santiago Canyon College Library is to support the learning community of the college and to make available a variety of information resources in recognition that the Library exists to further the research and scholarly needs of the college community;

Whereas the Library is dedicated to acquiring books to support the curriculum of the College and analysis of the Library's book collection and budget parameters indicate that funding levels are not sufficient for the acquisition of current and topical books to meet the curriculum needs of our students;

Whereas the Santiago Canyon College line item for library books with monies allocated from the discretionary budget in the past seven years has either not been funded, insufficiently funded, or inconstantly supplemented with lottery funds ;

Resolved that the Santiago Canyon Academic Senate share with the Budget Committee budget and collection data prepared by SCC Library Faculty; and,

Resolved, that the Santiago Canyon College Academic Senate reaffirms the importance of the Library to maintain current and new publications to support curriculum as described in the Library's Collection Management Policy; and,

Resolved, that the Santiago Canyon College Academic Senate reaffirms to the Santiago Canyon College President the importance of re-establishing consistent Library funding to maintain a collection of current and new publications.
