Associate of Arts for Transfer: Child and Adolescent Development (35593)

The Associate in Arts in Child and Adolescent Development for Transfer (AA-T) prepares a student to enter a California State University (CSU) as a junior to complete a baccalaureate degree in Child Development, Human Development, Child and Adolescent Studies, or Early Childhood Education. Upon completion of the AA-T in Child and Adolescent Development, students will have a general understanding of developmental theories as they pertain to the development, care, and education of young children. Students will demonstrate skill and knowledge in preparing developmentally-appropriate environments, curriculum, and assessments as they work professionally with families and team members and qualify for a Children's Center Permit.

Learning Outcome(s)

Upon successful completion of the requirements for this certificate, students will be able to

- Demonstrate skill and knowledge in child observation, documentation: and effective assessment strategies that positively influence the development of children
