Associate of Arts for Transfer: History (31720)

The Associate in Arts in History for Transfer degree provides a basic program to aid a student in thinking critically about one's self, one's cultural heritage, social and economic processes, and national and international affairs. Successful completion of the transfer degree in History guarantees the student acceptance to the California State University system to pursue a baccalaureate degree in History or a related field to pursue careers in a variety of government agencies, nongovernmental organizations (NGO), nonprofit organizations (NPO), international government organization (IGO), libraries or museums, and research programs.

Learning Outcome(s)

Upon successful completion of the major requirements for this degree, students will be able to

- Develop analytical skills by evaluating key historical decisions, testing hypotheses, and choosing among contending viewpoints
- Develop communication skills through writing exercises and discussions of critical historical events
- Act as better informed citizens and knowledgeable voters through the study of U.S. political traditions and concepts of citizenship
- Discuss, analyze, compare and contrast, diverse world cultural, religious, and political traditions
