

Monday, August 19, 2013

- 9:00-10:00 a.m. Emergency Procedures & Evacuation Training (with Alistair Winter in B-214)
Learn about the campus threat assessment process and how to effectively respond to emergency situations, such as an active shooter on campus. An active shooter is one situation where your behavior and the actions you take can have an impact on your survival. This training will include a discussion, a video demonstration and table-top collaborative exercises.
- 9:00-10:00 a.m. Social Media and the Classroom (with Berlyn Cobian in E-304) Emerging digital media is shaping our social landscape in a radical way. Many of our students actively participate in this process by means of Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, Tumblr, and more. In this workshop, we will discuss the ways social media influences classroom performance. We will also review strategies for using social media as an educational tool for community building, information sharing and supplementary instruction. The workshop will conclude with a roundtable discussion of how workshop participants are or can be using social media in their courses.
- 9:00-10:00 a.m. From Here to There: SLO Mapping Strategies (with Aaron Voelcker, Kay Powell, Rudy Tjiptahadi in E-205) Want to know the best way to San Francisco? It may be a stop off at Solvang. Google maps are great, but this workshop will give you a new mapping perspective for Student Learning Outcomes and Award Program Student Learning Outcomes that you may not have yet encountered. Find out how to be sure your outcomes form a clear link between course and program curriculum through an improved mapping strategy.
- 10:30-11:30 a.m. The Animal Question: Human Responsibility, Animal Rights, and Mutual Interactions (with Doug Deaver and Will Lennertz in E-205) Join us for a lively, humanities-based discussion on one of the pressing issues of the 21st century: animal rights. All opinions and welcome, including vegans, vegetarians, carnivores, omnivores, pet parents, and stewards. RSVP to deaver\_doug@sccollege.edu or lennertz\_will@sccollege.edu to receive packet of materials prior to activity.
- 10:30-11:30 a.m. Textbook Options (with Bill Jeffrey in B-103) This discussion will focus on the different textbook formats available: new, used, custom, digital, and rental programs.
- 12:15-1:15 p.m. The Articulation Process (with Leonor Aguilera in E-304) In this workshop you will learn about the course articulation process and its different cycles, which courses can be submitted for UC transferability, the guidelines for CSU or UC general education approval, and the course-to-course articulation to four-year universities.
- 1:00-2:30 p.m. Disruptive Students-Here's an Answer for That! (with Loretta Jordan in Room E-206) Many faculty members are unaware of their rights when they are faced with disruptive students. This workshop will review the Student Code of Conduct, as well as the rights and recourses available to you as a faculty member.

1:30-2:30 p.m.

Supporting Students with Effective Transfer Documents (with Rick Adams and Robert Waldren in E-205) Robert Waldren from the Transfer Center and Rick Adams in the English department will lead a discussion on how to help students produce quality transfer documents, including narratives and prompt responses. The workshop will also address ways to craft effective letters of recommendation. With the knowledge of what transfer institutions are looking for and a few "tricks of the trade," you can efficiently represent your students to their schools as well as help them represent themselves.

Tuesday, August 20, 2013

8:00-5:00 p.m.
(This session is a two-day workshop and continues on Wednesday)

The Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training program (ASIST), Part One: with Melissa Campitelli-Smith in E-305/306 This is a fourteen hour workshop that teaches participants to connect, understand, and assist persons who may be at risk for suicide. By training a broad range of people to recognize symptoms of suicide, how to intervene with those at risk for suicide, and how to refer those at risk for help, treatment of those at-risk for suicide will increase, thus decreasing suicide attempts and deaths. The ASIST workshop is for individuals who want to feel more comfortable, confident and competent in helping to prevent the immediate risk of suicide. Over one million individuals have participated in this two-day, highly interactive, practical, practice-oriented workshop. Participation in the full two days is required. Enjoy small group discussions and skills practice that are based upon adult learning principles. Experience powerful videos on suicide intervention. Feel challenged and safe. Learn suicide first aid. Please RSVP to Melissa at: Campitelli-Smith_melissa@sccollege.edu.

9:00-10:30 a.m.

Rubric Revolution Redux (with Aaron Voelcker, Kay Powell, Rudy Tjptahadi in D-209-4). Back by popular demand, Rubrics Revolution Redux! Would you like to simplify assessment? Streamline your grading and get good data for SLO assessment at the same time. You will receive access to tools to generate and score rubrics and additional online resources to assist you. Bring with you an assignment you already use in class and leave with an easy-to-use and appropriate rubric ready to go. This is an opportunity to get answers to any questions you have about developing rubrics or about SLO assessments in general.

10:00-noon

College & Career Readiness: Incorporating the Common Core Standards (presented by CORD: the Center for Occupational Research and Development in SC-110) The skills needed in the United States go beyond reading, mathematics, and science. Educators are taking a holistic view of 21st-century teaching and learning that combines a discrete focus on 21st-century student outcomes (a blending of specific skills, content knowledge, and expertise) with innovative support systems to help students master the multi-dimensional abilities required of them in the 21st century. This workshop is an introduction to College and Career Readiness and the common core standards. Workshop topics include: What is College & Career Ready?; Group Work: Local Data-Are our students prepared to transition?; 21st Century Skills; Four Dimensions of College & Career Readiness; Group Work: Inventory of how well our school currently incorporates 21st century skills; Common Core: Design & Organization; College & Career Readiness Anchor Standards; Strategies for Incorporation; Group Work: CCR Team Formation; Next Steps; Report Outs. For additional information contact Corine Doughty on extension 84883.

- 10:30-11:50 p.m. PowerPoint Workshop (with Cindy Swift in B-104) The objective of this workshop is to increase your skills with PowerPoint. Come prepared to ask questions of what you would like to learn: either formatting basics, inserting graphics, using slide transitions, using animations to make objects move on the screen, or inserting videos to run in your slides.
- 12:00-1:00 p.m. Muslim Journeys (with Leah Freidenrich and Anita Varela in L-219) Immerse yourself in the literature and films on Islam! Join us in a quick preview of the materials we received last spring in the grant, Muslim Journeys Bookshelf. We will give short book talks on some of the new titles and preview a few of the DVDs from the collection, including the award winning Koran by Heart and Prince of Slaves. In addition, there will be a hands-on experience with the Oxford Islamic Studies Online. Get ready for our "All-College Read" in the fall with an synopsis and discussion questions for Minaret by Leila Aboulela; the title selected for your consideration for inclusion in your fall reading lists for your classes. Middle Eastern snacks in the spirit of Minaret will be served! Especially relevant for History, Political Science, World Religions, Women's Studies and Philosophy. Everyone welcome!
- 1:00-2:30 p.m. Faculty Committee Chair Luncheon and Discussion (with Corinna Evett in E-107) All current Faculty Committee Chairs are invited to join the Academic Senate President and Senate Executive Board for lunch (provided) and an informal discussion regarding Committee Chair responsibilities and senate/committee connections. Please RSVP by email to Academic Senate President Evett (evett\_corinna@sccollege.edu) by August 13th.
- 1:00-3:00 p.m. The Creative Class and 21st Century Skills (in room SC-110): The creative class, as described by Richard Florida in his 2003 bestseller The Rise of the Creative Class: And How It's Transforming Work, Leisure, Community and Everyday Life, is an emerging group of scientists, engineers, architects, educators, writers, artists, and entertainers whose work requires abstract and non-routine cognitive abilities. This workshop is designed to help educators understand the mindsets of young people in the 21st century and use web 2.0 tools and contextual games to provide classroom experiences that will help their students prepare to become members of the creative class. Several free web 2.0 tools are demonstrated and used by the participants. A framework for designing lessons around good games is also provided. Participants review two free Internet-based games and corresponding lessons. Attendees are assisted in finding good, free Internet games so that they can write their own lessons using the provided framework. For additional information contact Corine Doughty on extension 84883.
- 1:30-2:45 p.m. Life of Pi: Novel to Film (with Leah Freidenrich in E-308) What does it take to transform a novel into an award-winning film? How can a film add new dimensions to an already artful story? Join us for a conversation and comparison of the unusual novel, Life of Pi by Yann Martel and the recent film which had eleven Oscar nominations, winning four including Best Director for Ang Lee. Please pre-read the book or a synopsis in order to better participate in the conversation. Selected clips from the film will be shown.

- 2:00-3:30 p.m. Walk 'n Talk with President Juan Vazquez and Mike Taylor at the Coastkeeper's Garden. Join Professor Mike Taylor (Biology) and President Juan Vázquez, on a walk through the 2.5 acre Coastkeeper Garden located at the northeast corner of SCC. This unique, sustainable garden hosts plants from six southern California native habitats as well as California Friendly ® plants from around the world. The master plan incorporates six California Friendly ® vignettes (garden rooms) into "backyard" landscapes that harmonize with the native plant habitat throughout the Garden. Meeting place at base of steps in front of Gymnasium.
- 2:00-3:00 p.m. Mathematics and Sciences Division Department Chair Meeting (in Room E-107)
- 3:15- 4:30 p.m. Math Department Meeting (in SC-110)
- 4:00-5:00 p.m. Academic Success Center Open House (with Silvia Lopez in D-209) Come join us for refreshments and information about how we can assist your students to improve their academic skills. Learn how your fellow professors are using the ASC with positive results in their classes. Hands-on stations will allow you to explore our many computer-assisted learning systems. The content and learning objectives are customized to students' individual skill levels and needs.
- 4:00-5:20 p.m. Library/Arts, Humanities & Social Science Department Chair Meeting (in Room E-107)
- 5:30-6:45 p.m. Emergency Procedures & Evacuation Training (with Alistair Winter in SC-105) Learn about the campus threat assessment process and how to effectively respond to emergency situations, such as an active shooter on campus. An active shooter is one situation where your behavior and the actions you take can have an impact on your survival. This training will include a discussion, a video demonstration and table-top collaborative exercises. A light dinner will be served to participants attending workshop starting at 4:30 p.m.. Please RSVP to your appropriate Division Office staff by August 15th.
- 7:00-9:00 p.m. Business and Career Technical Division Meeting for all full-time and part-time faculty members (in Room E-206). Includes breakout sessions by program.
- 7:00-9:00 p.m. Division and Department Meetings for Adjunct Faculty: Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences Division (in D-101) Department meetings and locations will be announced at the Division meetings.
