New Student Leadership at Santiago Canyon College

June 15—Santiago Canyon College (SCC) in Orange welcomed new student leaders for the 2005-2006 academic year. The Associated Student Body (ASB) leaders are President Evan Cudworth and Vice President Kimberly Albers, both of Orange.

New ASB president Evan Cudworth, 21, is in his final year at Santiago Canyon College and expects to graduate in 2006. He has been active in student government and was president of the Philosophy Club. One of his main goals as ASB president is broaden the scope of SCC student activities to raise money for more charities, from local to international.

“It’s at Santiago Canyon College that I learned the difference between knowledge and wisdom,” Cudworth said. “I hope to show other students in the coming year the wisest manner in which they can use the knowledge they acquire while in school.” After his term of office is over, Cudworth plans to transfer to University of California, Irvine and earn a bachelor’s degree in history. His career goal is to teach history at the high school or college level, and possibly pursue an advanced degree in philosophy.
