Standards of Conduct for SCC Computer Use

In accordance with Board Policy 7000 and Administrative Regulation 7000 and in an effort to extend the life of the hardware, comply with the copyright laws, and adhere to appropriate computer network conduct and usage, the following standards of conduct are required of all students using computer classrooms, computer labs, and the wireless network.

Failure to comply with the following standards can result in the suspension of a student’s privileges and possibly other sanctions such as removal from class, suspension, expulsion or other disciplinary actions.

The primary use of computer systems/resources is for academic/educational purposes. The following are NOT allowed:

1. Using the Internet to access sexually explicit and/or pornographic websites.

2. Sending and receiving any messages that are threatening, racist or inflammatory, abusive towards a specific gender or culture, obscene, or use inappropriate language.

3. Using the network for personal or commercial advertising or political activity.

4. Using the computers or wireless network to play individual games, multiple-user games, or gambling.

5. Using the computer for illegal use.

The SCC Library, each computer lab, computer classroom, and science lab may have additional restrictions to those listed above. It is the student’s responsibility to be aware of these additional guidelines.
