1) Students will demonstrate how a scientific and ethical archaeologist conducts archaeological field research.

2) Students will discuss the historic development of archaeology and explain the importance of Lewis Binford.

3) Students will compare the different environmental conditions that preserve human bodies?

4) Students will demonstrate how artifacts and ecofacts can be used in the interpretation of past cultural contacts and trade patterns.