HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA DISCREPANCY RESOLUTION

The California Student Aid Commission requires that all students who receive funds from financial aid programs must have one of the following in order to qualify:

- ✓ A high school diploma
- ✓ A GED
- ✓ High School Equivalency Test (HiSET) or Test Assessing Secondary Completion (TASC).

Effective July 1, 2012, all students that apply for financial aid must have obtained one of the above mentioned before any California student aid can be processed. You may have received this notice because there is a discrepancy with the status of your high school diploma. You may have indicated the high school diploma completion status as none of the above or home schooled on your current Dream Act application, or the Admissions and Records Department does not have an updated high school diploma on file. Please contact the Admissions and Records Department and resolve your high school diploma discrepancy and provide the document that applies to you directly the Financial Aid Office.

Please indicate your completion from the following options below:

- I have graduated and received a high school diploma from: _____
(Please provide an original copy of high school diploma. Financial aid staff will photocopy the original.)
- I have received a GED.
(Please provide an original copy of GED test results. Financial aid staff will photocopy the original.)
- I have passed the High School Equivalency Test (HiSET) or Test Assessing Secondary Completion (TASC). Issue Date: _____
