Legal Definition of Homelessness

According to section 725(2) of the Mc Kinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 11434a (2)), the term "homeless children and youth" is defined as followed:

Homeless

- Individuals who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence. This term includes –
- Children and youths who are sharing the housing of other persons due to loss of housing, economic hardship, or similar reason; are living in motels, hotels, trailer parks, or camping grounds due to the lack of alternative adequate accommodations; are living in emergency or transitional shelters; or are abandoned in hospitals.
- Children and youths who have a primary nighttime residence that is a public or private place not designed for or ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings.
- Children and youths who are living in cars, parks, public spaces, abandoned buildings, substandard housing, bus or train stations, or similar settings.
- Migratory children (as defined in section 1309 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, as amended), who qualify as homeless because they are living in circumstances described in this definition.

Unaccompanied Youth

- Includes a homeless child or youth not in the physical custody of a parent or guardian.
