Loan Limit Resolution

Based upon data provided by the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) and your grade level, it is determined that you may have received subsidized student loans in excess of loan limits, or you may have received a total amount of undergraduate student loans that exceeds this limit. Please review your Student Aid Report (SAR), and follow the instructions from the comment code that applies to you specifically. Provide any documents needed to determine your eligibility status regarding your prior or current student loan(s).

1. SAR COMMENT CODE: 392

() Based on the data provided by NSLDS and your grade level, we have determined that you may have received a total amount of student loans (graduate and undergraduate) that exceeds the loan limits established for federal loan programs. However, you may have reaffirmed the excess debt with your loan servicer, restoring your eligibility to participate in the federal student aid programs. You must provide any documentation of reaffirmed debt with your servicer.

() Based on the data provided by NSLDS and your grade level, we have determined that you may have received a total amount of undergraduate student loans that exceeds the loan limits established for the federal loan programs. However, you may have reaffirmed the excess debt with your loan servicer, restoring your eligibility to participate in the federal loan programs. You must provide any documentation of reaffirmed debt with your servicer.

Students who borrow in excess of aggregate loan limits are ineligible to receive further Title IV assistance. A student may regain eligibility either by repaying the amount borrowed in excess of the aggregate limits or by making satisfactory (to the loan holder) repayment arrangements for the excess amount.
