Alumni Stories – Rebecca Martinez

Rebecca Martinez graduated from Santiago Canyon College with an Associate of Arts degree in Liberal Studies. She transferred to Chapman University and received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Liberal Studies/English, Master of Arts degree in Special Education, and an administration certificate. Ms. Martinez taught at El Modena High School for over 25 years and is currently an adjunct professor at Chapman University.

She enjoys her grandchildren, cooking, read, walking and travel. After she retired from OUSD, she started a book club with former colleagues and they've been going strong for over seven years.

Favorite memory of SCC was the support from one of my professors, Ruth Babeshoff. She helped me get a scholarship at Chapman University and helped me create the path towards teaching high school English.
